DESCRIPTION

Bourgeois house ideally located in Chaumont, just 5 minutes walking from the train station and downtown. This character property, partly renovated, consists of five distinct apartments: three units on the ground floor, and one apartment per floor on the first and second floor. Each apartment has been carefully designed, some featuring original floorboards, others with exposed beams, moldings, and mosaics. A large vaulted cellar helps preserve the authentic charm of the place.

Income potential

The apartments, previously rented as Air B N B, offer high-end features and have received excellent reviews from visitors. Each has a fully equipped kitchen and a bathroom, as well as access to a private outdoor space. The previous owner lived on the first floor and rented out four units. Today the units are tenant free.
