DESCRIPTION

Nestled in the heart of one of Anglet's most sought-after and beautifully preserved neighborhoods, this villa offers true exclusivity. This confidential and intimate new address is set within the rare landscape of the Basque Coast, where nature, ocean, golf, and gastronomy converge to create an unparalleled art of living.

The villa is part of an exclusive estate comprising 18 contemporary Basque-style villas, each featuring a private landscaped garden, a closed garage, an additional parking space, and a private swimming pool.

Designed to maximize natural light and fluidity of space, the architecture blends elegance and authenticity with modern living. High-end materials, refined finishes, and advanced home automation create a serene, contemporary environment in perfect harmony with its surroundings.

Ideally located just a 5-minute walk from the Halles des Cinq Cantons, with immediate proximity to Stella Maris school (nursery through high school), the Chiberta and Impératrice golf clubs, local shops, and only a 20-minute walk from the beaches, this gated and secure estate is set back from main traffic routes within a bucolic, tree-lined setting—a true haven of tranquility in the heart of Anglet.

This exceptional property is perfectly suited for a primary residence, a second home, or a long-term investment, combining quality, sustainability, and timeless appeal.
