DESCRIPTION

Set in a peaceful riverside environment, this character property offers a rare combination of charm, space, and versatility, with a main house, a large independent party/reception hall, and just under 1 hectare of land bordered by the Sarthe river.

The main house, dating back around 100 years, offers approximately 250 m² of living space with high ceilings and exposed beams throughout. The slate roof and traditional structure give the property its classic appeal. Heating is provided by a combination of a wood stove, electric radiators, and a reversible heat-pump. Drainage is non-conforming. The house benefits from new electric gates, wooden fencing suitable for horses, an attached garage, and cellar.

On the ground floor, the spacious entrance hall/dining room leads to a fitted kitchen and a large sitting room featuring a wood stove and wide windows overlooking the river. A wrap-around terrace extends from the living room, offering multiple viewpoints over the gardens and water. All ground-floor rooms have direct access to the outside, creating a seamless connection with the terraces and gardens. The ground floor also includes two bedrooms, a bathroom, a dedicated laundry room, and a separate WC.

Upstairs, the first floor provides three/four bedrooms, including a master bedroom with its own ensuite shower room. The remaining bedrooms are served by a family bathroom, along with a separate WC, offering comfortable accommodation for family and guests.

The second building is a large, versatile party/reception hall of around 230 m², insulated and heated. It features a bar with...
