NOTES

DESCRIPTION

This elegant bourgeois townhouse, built in the style of a traditional maison de maître, offers approximately 297 m² of living space over two floors, with generous room sizes and excellent development potential.

The ground floor features several bright reception rooms including lounges and a dining room, as well as a kitchen and additional spaces that could easily suit either family living, tourism or professional projects. Upstairs are five bedrooms and two bathrooms with WC.

The property also benefits from a cellar/basement of more than 60 m², ideal for storage, a workshop or further usable space.

Outside, the enclosed garden includes a swimming pool, terrace and well. An outbuilding in need of renovation offers potential for independent accommodation, an artist's studio or additional entertaining space. A large garage/workshop of over 100 m² is a rare advantage for a town-centre property.

Comfort features already include double glazing, aérothermal heating, fibre internet and mains drainage.

Located in the lively riverside town of Castillon-la-Bataille, the property enjoys easy access to shops, restaurants and the train station while remaining close to Saint-Émilion and its world-famous vineyards.

Rare for the area, this versatile property combines character, generous volumes, additional spaces and a strategic location, making it ideal as a large family residence, guest house business, hospitality project or high-potential rental investment.
