IN BRIEF

A delightful and generously proportioned 3-bedroom house, perfectly positioned within easy walking distance of all village amenities in the picturesque Peyrat-Le-Château.

The welcoming ground floor features a lovely kitchen/dining area ideal for everyday living and entertaining. A bright and airy lounge, with beautiful exposed stone walls, timber beams, and warm wooden flooring, offers a wonderful space to relax. Also on this level is a well-situated bedroom with direct access to a pretty terrace — perfect for morning coffee or evening unwinding — along with a handy storage room and a bathroom.

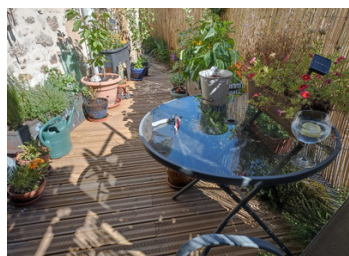

Upstairs, you'll find two further bedrooms, one small (7.5m2). One bedroom benefits from a flat roof area just outside the window, presenting an exciting opportunity to create a private outside terrace if desired. Additionally, an attic room offers excellent potential for further conversion or customization.

DESCRIPTION

The entrance to the front of this lovely house leads into a large kitchen/dining room (21m²) with fitted kitchen units and gas (bottled) oven and hob. A small staircase to the right of this room leads to a bedroom (17m²) which has doorway access to a nice terrace (15m²) which is used for barbecuing and relaxing. The kitchen/diner also has a door leading into a hallway (12m²) with a bathroom to the right (6m²) and a separate WC.

A doorway from the hallway leads into a wonderful lounge (43m²) with large windows giving a light and airy feel and boasting exposed stone walls and wooden floor. To the rear of the lounge is a very useful storage area (22m²).

A stairway from the hallway leads to two further bedrooms (11.5m² and 7.5m²) and an attic room with potential for conversion.

The house is in the centre of Peyrat Le Chateau with shops, bars, restaurants, cinema and leisure lake. It is also a short drive away from the larger towns of Eymoutiers, Bourgneuf and St Leonard De Noblat. It is also around a 10 minute drive to the Lac De Vassiviere with restaurants, snack bars, beaches and water sports. The airport at Limoges is an hours drive away.
