DESCRIPTION

Charming Village Property with Garage, Garden and Attic – Central France

Set in the heart of a friendly village in central France, this rustic yet habitable property offers a wonderful opportunity for anyone seeking an affordable holiday home or a simple village lifestyle.

The ground floor comprises an entrance hallway, a bright lounge with log burner, kitchen and dining area, a storage room, and a separate utility room. Upstairs, the first floor features two small bedrooms and one generously sized bedroom, while an attic above provides additional storage or future potential.

A detached garage within walking distance includes garage and storage space along with two separate rooms, offering flexibility for workshops, hobbies, or extra storage. The property also benefits from a small garden and a cellar.

Living in the village centre means everyday amenities are right on your doorstep, including a supermarket, pharmacy, local market, and a charming café, all just a short stroll away. The larger town of Le Dorat is only a 15-minute drive, and Limoges International Airport can be reached in approximately one hour.

This property is ideal for buyers looking for a budget-friendly start to a holiday home or renovation project, combining village convenience with the relaxed pace of rural French life. A delightful and practical base from which to enjoy all that the region has to offer.
