DESCRIPTION

Located in the charming village of Les Trois Moutiers, this well-presented four-bedroom detached house offers comfortable, single-level living in a peaceful rural setting. Ready to move into, the property combines practical living with style and light-filled spaces.

The interior features a stylish, fully fitted and well-equipped kitchen opening seamlessly into a generous living and dining area, bathed in natural light and extending onto a terrace that enjoys sweeping panoramic views across the surrounding countryside. There are four well proportioned bedrooms, a family bathroom with both walk-in shower and bath, and a separate WC.

The property also boasts a large basement with double garage doors and parking for two cars, a laundry room, and ample storage. This versatile space could easily be converted into a home office, private gym, or self-contained apartment, offering exciting potential to suit your lifestyle.

Additional highlights include underfloor heating throughout and solar panels, ensuring comfort and energy efficiency. Set within 3,499 m² of fully enclosed grounds, the property offers privacy, outdoor space, and the perfect backdrop for countryside living.

The village provides essential amenities including a shop, bakery, and bar, while the renowned Loire Valley towns of Saumur, Chinon, and Montreuil-Bellay are just 20–30 minutes away, famous for their châteaux and historic charm.

A delightful and versatile home, ideal for anyone seeking a combination of rural tranquillity, style, and practicality.
