DESCRIPTION

Located only 300 metres from the heart of Dax, this income-generating property enjoys a highly strategic position, particularly sought after by spa guests attending thermal treatments throughout the year. Built on a 611 m² plot, the building offers approximately 312 m² of living space and is arranged over two floors, with a shared balcony on the upper level providing a pleasant outdoor area for residents.

The property consists of 15 furnished apartments perfectly suited to short-, medium- and long-term rentals. The units, ranging from studios to one-bedroom apartments, have been designed to meet the specific expectations of spa guests: practicality, comfort and ease of use. Each apartment features a sleeping area or separate bedroom, a fitted kitchen or kitchenette, a private shower room, as well as essential amenities such as television and WiFi access.

The building's layout allows for efficient rental management, with regular turnover of spa guests during the thermal seasons. Four apartments are currently rented on a year-round basis, ensuring a stable base of income, while the remaining units are dedicated to seasonal and medium-term spa rentals, offering excellent yield potential during peak periods.

The surrounding environment is a major asset. Thermal establishments are within easy reach, as are the city centre and its wide range of shops and services. A shopping centre, the renowned Dax bullring, local markets, restaurants and everyday amenities are all located nearby. This central setting allows tenants to move around on foot, a decisive criterion for spa guests.
