IN BRIEF

This 183 m² winegrower's house combines old-world charm with spaciousness and comfort.

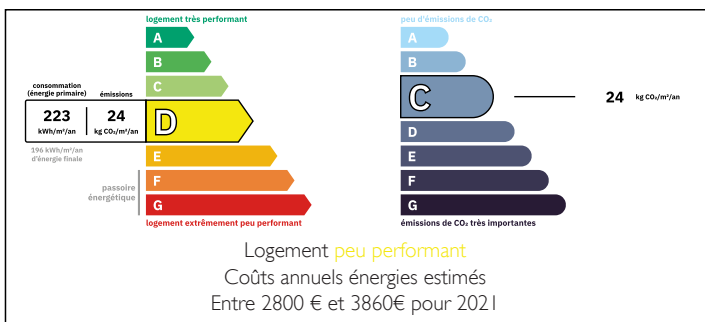

The ground floor consists of a large garage, a truly technical and functional space, including a pantry, a laundry room, wine cellars and plenty of storage space.

The living area is located on the first floor. Here you will find a bright living room opening onto the terrace. The kitchen adjoins the dining room, creating a convivial space. This level also includes a bedroom, a room that can be converted into a shower room as required, and a separate WC.

The second floor is dedicated to sleeping accommodation with four bedrooms, a shower room and a WC.

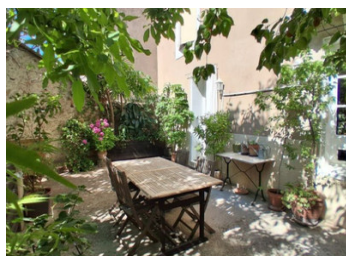

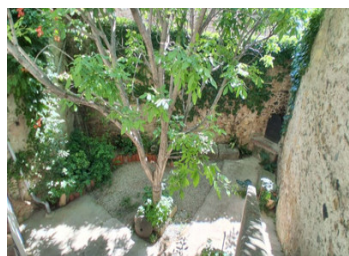

The third floor is an exceptional space due to its size. Currently converted into a workshop, it could be transformed into a games room or offices with a meeting room. There...
