DESCRIPTION

Built in 2000, this super hillside villa of 105m² is set in a quiet mountain village in the Pyrénées, yet is just minutes away from the lively town of Laruns, which has shops, restaurants, bars, schools and many clubs, activities and amenities to suit all ages.

The property is located at the end of a lane, not far from the centre of the village. From the lane, gates open into a private driveway, which slopes down gently to a private parking area in front of the villa. To the left is a small outbuilding, which has a log store and lockable storage.

The villa's front door opens into a small entrance hall area, which leads into a spacious open-plan sitting room/dining room of about 35m². French doors open out to a west-facing terrace and to the garden beyond. Adjoining the sitting room/dining room is a kitchen with a pantry/storage room.

Also on the ground floor is a master bedroom of about 15m² with a small dressing room, and French doors out to a south-facing terrace. The bedroom is next to a recently renovated shower room.

From the sitting room/dining room, stairs lead up to the first floor, which has a large bedroom of about 16m² (floor area) and a smaller bedroom of about 9.5m² (floor area). NB: please note that both first-floor bedrooms have sloping ceilings.

The villa is set in a hillside garden of 1,700m². Planted with mature trees and shrubs, which should be easy to...
