IN BRIEF

This charming 18th-century stone property offers a rare combination of authentic character, independent accommodation, and proven rental potential. Set in a peaceful rural environment in Brittany, the property includes two separate stone houses: a main house full of character with a stone spiral staircase, and a self-contained gîte ideal for holiday rentals or extra income. The property features a south-facing garden, stone fireplaces, and generous outdoor space, making it perfect for a family home, multi-generational living, or a lifestyle investment.
