NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Located in the heart of the Périgord Vert, this property enjoys a well-preserved natural setting, renowned for its rolling countryside, woodland, lush green meadows, and its highly sought-after quality of life.

The area offers an ideal environment for nature lovers, with numerous opportunities for walking, hiking, cycling, and other outdoor activities. The Périgord Vert is also known for its rich heritage, characterful villages, local markets, and a gastronomy that highlights quality regional produce.

Both peaceful and lively, the region allows you to enjoy an authentic lifestyle while remaining close to local shops, essential services, and main transport routes. It is a particularly desirable location for a main residence, a holiday home, or a countryside lifestyle project, combining tranquillity, charm, and a gentle pace of life.

The house offers, on the ground floor, a bright and spacious open-plan living area comprising a lounge and dining room of approximately 49 m², ideal for entertaining family and friends, with generous volumes and a warm atmosphere. This space is complemented by a functional and welcoming kitchen of approximately 16 m², with an adjoining pantry, providing useful storage.

On the first floor, the sleeping area consists of three bedrooms, including one larger room, two bathrooms, and access to the attic, offering storage space or further potential for additional accommodation, depending on requirements.

The property is further enhanced by an adjacent barn of approximately 117 m², offering a wide range of possible uses (garage, workshop, storage, or future project), as well as an adjoining garden,...
