DESCRIPTION

Built around 1750, the Manoir Henri IV stands as a majestic witness to centuries of elegance and refinement. Its storied past as both a coaching inn and a celebrated restaurant gives it an undeniable charm and prestige.

Partially renovated with the utmost care, the Manoir balances historical authenticity with modern comfort. Every restored detail tells the story of its rich heritage while offering the potential for contemporary use.

Two vast rooms form the heart of the property—ideal for hosting weddings, corporate seminars, or exclusive restaurant concepts. Each space is defined by high ceilings, generous proportions, and a pervasive sense of grandeur.

Whether you envision a refined event venue or a private residence steeped in character, this property invites you to write the next chapter of a remarkable legacy.
