IN BRIEF

William Darwen and Leggett proud to be able to offer this lovely detached stone property in a great elevated location above the village of Lithaire, 5km from the popular and lively town of La Haye du Puits which has an excellent selection of independent retailers, restaurants, 3 supermarkets and a weekly market. The house is just 16 km away from some of the finest beaches France has to offer, which remain uncrowded even during the summer season. As an added bonus, the house is close to the network of cycleways (voies vertes) which cross-cross their way from Coast to Coast and from Cherbourg to Le Mont st. Michel. The village of Lithaire is large enough to sustain its own bakery (about 1km from the house) and Mont Castre with its fishing lake and footpaths giving views over...
