IN BRIEF

In the heart of a picturesque medieval village, wrapped in peace and countryside charm, this beautiful stone house dating from 1789 once welcomed pilgrims travelling along the Way of St James of Compostela.

Its thick 80 cm stone walls have witnessed centuries of stories. Today, they offer warmth, character and authenticity in a truly special setting.

DESCRIPTION

Warm & Inviting Living Spaces

The ground floor offers a 14.3 m² kitchen open to a charming dining area, creating a 29 m² living space centred around a wood-burning insert — perfect for cosy winter evenings.

A separate lounge (11 m²) features a charming mezzanine sleeping area, ideal for guests or a reading retreat.

Upstairs, two 10 m² bedrooms with wooden floors continue the authentic feel of the home.

Peaceful Garden & Inspiring Surroundings

Set on a 1,094 m² plot, the property enjoys a quiet natural environment, just 100 metres from a hiking trail.

Despite the tranquillity, the amenities of Nexon and Flavignac are only 5 km away (shops, pharmacy, cafés).

Endless Potential

A large 54 m² garage/workshop, built in 2008 with water and electricity connections, offers exciting possibilities:

- Guest accommodation
- Artist's studio
- Extension
- Holiday rental
