DESCRIPTION

Charming Period Stone Property — Ideal Holiday Home, Gîte or Lock-Up-and-Leave Investment near Mont-Saint-Michel

Situated in the heart of the peaceful village of Saint-Marc-le-Blanc (35460), this attractive granite character property offers a rare opportunity to acquire an authentic French home rich in charm, history, and architectural integrity — all within easy reach of Brittany's stunning countryside and the iconic Mont-Saint-Michel.

Constructed from local stone and showcasing beautiful traditional craftsmanship, the house features striking original granite masonry, an elegant arched entrance doorway, dressed stone window surrounds, and impressively thick walls that provide both durability and natural insulation year-round.

Inside, the property offers open-plan living spaces across all floors, creating a bright and highly adaptable layout suited to modern living. This flexible configuration provides an ideal canvas for buyers wishing to design a unique home while preserving its historic character. There is potential for two open fireplaces, perfect for cosy evenings and adding further charm to the principal living areas.

While renovation is required to bring the property to contemporary comfort standards, it retains a wealth of original features including exposed stonework, traditional timber elements, possible colombage (half-timber detailing), and fine granite craftsmanship rarely found in modern construction. With thoughtful updating, this could become a stunning blend of heritage and modern style — ideal as a character residence or investment property.

Perfect as a holiday home in Brittany, second residence, or secure lock-up-and-leave property, the manageable size and solid construction make it easy to maintain during periods of absence. It also...
