DESCRIPTION

Ground Floor

The front door opens into a welcoming entrance hall. To the right, a cosy reception room with fireplace provides an intimate living space. To the left, the kitchen is fully functional yet ready for modernisation, offering the perfect opportunity for a new owner to create a bespoke culinary space.

Beyond the kitchen lies what was originally the garage, now in the early stages of conversion into a spacious lounge/dining room. A woodburner has already been installed, and double doors open onto a covered veranda, creating a seamless connection between indoor and outdoor living.

First Floor

The staircase, accessed from the entrance hall, is a distinctive feature of the home. After a short flight, it divides in two:

One fork leads to a large, light-filled principal bedroom overlooking the rear of the property, with a very spacious bathroom opposite (shower installation to be completed).

The second fork leads to two further generous double bedrooms.

Exterior

The property is set within an impressive parcel of land of over 9,000 sqm, wrapping around the house and offering privacy, space and potential for landscaping or smallholding use. There is a covered terrace ideal for outdoor dining, along with an outbuilding suitable for storing logs, machinery or a tractor.

The house benefits from double glazing throughout and is connected to mains drainage.

Location

The village itself offers the essential charm of rural French living, including a local bakery for your daily bread and croissants.
