DESCRIPTION

Discover an exceptional contemporary villa set within 2,400 m² of fully fenced and walled landscaped parkland on the edge of the forest, just 25 minutes from Poitiers and 5 minutes from the medieval town of Chauvigny. Bordering Bois de la Loge, this rare property offers privacy, serenity, and a truly immersive natural setting where deer can often be seen from the garden.

Interior Elegance & Comfort

Offering 155 m² of refined living space, the villa is complemented by a 30 m² garage, a cellar, and a 19 m² outbuilding at the rear of the property. Already wired for electricity, the outbuilding can easily be connected to water and insulated to create a guest studio, independent annex, or home office.

Inside, a spectacular 80 m² living room bathed in natural light opens through expansive bay windows onto the terrace and pool, with no overlooking neighbours. The vast designer kitchen, centred around a generous island, is equipped with brand-new premium appliances: induction hob, extractor hood, large refrigerator and freezer, dishwasher, washer/dryer, oven and microwave - ideal for entertaining on any scale.

Four spacious bedrooms offer ample storage and peaceful views of the surrounding greenery. The master suite features an impressive walk-in dressing room and private bathroom. There is also a modern family bathroom with walk-in shower provide both style and practicality.

Designed for effortless year-round living, the home includes underfloor heating, a brand-new €12,000 heat pump (installed two months ago), a 190L water heater, electric shutters on all windows and...
