DESCRIPTION

As soon as you enter, the tone is set by a majestic hall featuring a monumental wooden staircase. The reception rooms are distinguished by their period features.

An elegant lounge and dining room are enhanced by 'French-style' ceilings and magnificent 18th-century fireplaces.

A spacious, cosy and bright kitchen with a remarkable 17th-century fireplace opens onto the conservatory.

The large study, which could serve as a bedroom, opens onto the terrace, offering sweeping views of the extraordinary panorama over the Dronne valley. A bathroom completes this ground floor level.

A landing leads to the sleeping area and provides access to four bedrooms offering unobstructed views. Some have en-suite washbasins.

Bathroom and separate toilet.

Attic.

The ground floor is designed for comfort and leisure. Two garages, a boiler room, a wine cellar and a workshop are complemented by an indoor kitchen/utility room, a major asset for making the most of the outdoors.

The panoramic terrace overlooks 3,637 m² of land. This natural vantage point offers sweeping views of the surrounding countryside, ensuring absolute tranquillity.

Roofing completely refurbished in 2024.

A heat pump heating system was recently installed (April 2026).

Fireplaces and wood-burning stoves.

Triple glazing (2024)

Just a few minutes from the property lies an iconic local spot for relaxation, featuring a wild swimming area with a natural sandy and grassy beach on the banks of the Dronne. A relaxed, open-air atmosphere with a bar and restaurant where you can enjoy lunch or dinner with your feet in the water on summer evenings.

Water sports, canoe and paddleboard hire to explore...
