DESCRIPTION

Nestled on one of Limoux's prime central streets, this historic mixed-use building stands as a cornerstone investment opportunity in Occitanie's vibrant small-town market. Fully tenanted with 4 residential apartments (mix of T2, T3, T4 units) and a versatile commercial local on the street-facing ground floor, it generates strong, reliable cash flow from day one—perfect for those versed in French rental regimes. The property's petite semi-open courtyard provides rare outdoor breathing space in downtown, enhancing tenant retention and appeal.

Its location strikes the perfect balance: mere steps from Limoux's main square, restaurants, shops, and amenities for walkable daily life, yet set back just enough to avoid the buzz of live events and nightlife noise. This setup ensures low vacancy rates and steady demand from long-term renters. While the aging structure calls for targeted upgrades—think common areas, energy efficiency (DPE improvements), electricals, windows, and interiors it offers substantial upside for savvy owners. Phase in renovations to boost rents toward market levels, enhance capital value.

Whether you're parking capital in a high-yield asset via SCI, eyeing the commercial space for your own boutique/café/office venture while collecting upstairs rents, or planning a full repositioning, this building aligns with proven French investment playbooks: secure income now, value creation later.
