DESCRIPTION

This beautifully renovated property combines character and comfort, featuring elegant stone flooring throughout the ground floor.

You are welcomed into a spacious living and dining area, where a chimney with a log-burning stove creates a warm and inviting focal point. To the right, a generous bedroom is accompanied by a second versatile room—ideal as a home office, hobby room, or even a fourth bedroom. This section also includes a shower room with WC and a practical storage room, housing the hot water heater and offering plumbing for a washing machine.

A couple of steps lead from the living area into a bright and airy kitchen/breakfast room. From here, a door opens onto a secluded rear garden, complete with a wooden terrace—perfect for al fresco dining and relaxing in privacy.

Stairs from the kitchen lead to the upper floor, where a hallway provides access to two further bedrooms and a well-appointed bathroom featuring both a bath and a shower, along with a separate WC.

The property also benefits from an attached barn and a grassed garden area to the side of the house, plus to the front of the house a spacious stone terrace and a gravelled area bordered by a newly planted hedge create an attractive outdoor setting.

Ideally situated, the picturesque village of Aubeterre-sur-Dronne is just a short stroll away. Renowned for its charm, the village offers a selection of delightful bars and restaurants, as well as a unique sandy riverside beach along the Dronne—perfect for swimming, canoeing,...
