NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Step into a home where character and comfort dance together in perfect rhythm. This beautifully detached family house has been thoughtfully renovated, preserving its soul while weaving in modern ease. Exposed stone walls and rustic beams whisper stories of the past, while the refreshed interiors invite you to settle in and stay awhile.

At the heart of the home lies a generous 35m² kitchen and dining space, a true gathering place. Tiled floors keep things practical, while a striking feature fireplace adds warmth and atmosphere, ideal for long, laughter-filled evenings. A separate laundry room with downstairs WC keeps daily life neatly tucked away. The living room offers a cosy retreat, complete with a contemporary pellet burner and elegant half-panelled walls, blending charm with clean, modern lines.

Upstairs, the landing opens onto a balcony, offering peaceful views across the expansive gardens, perfect for a quiet morning coffee or a moment of reflection. The family shower room is sleek and comfortable, featuring a walk-in shower, WC, and wash basin. Two generously sized bedrooms provide restful sanctuaries, with the larger room offering a touch of indulgence thanks to its luxurious freestanding bathtub, an inviting spot to unwind at the end of the day.

The property can be sold furnished.

Outside, the property continues to impress. Two substantial barns, both with recently renewed roofing, present exciting possibilities for workshops, storage, or creative projects. One even features a partially open section, ideal for transforming into a charming walled garden. A separate insulated outbuilding...
