NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Built in 2006 this equestrian complex is a timber U shaped construction comprising the house and two wings with garages, sellerie, eight horse boxes including two larger boxes. The land is entirely fenced to provide several different grazing areas and there is also a round lunging pen.

The house provides a vast, bright living area with a cathedral ceiling and a recently fitted kitchen. The living area has large french windows looking out towards the well and to either side the stables. A corridor leads to four bedrooms, a bathroom with bath, italien style shower and double hand basin and a separate toilet. The attic lies above the bedrooms. The house is entirely fitted with double glazing.

To either side of the house, there are two garages, storage space, a tack room and eight horse boxes each with a window at the back of the box.

The house is equipped with a heat pump which provides heating via air outlets in each room which are independently controlled.
