DESCRIPTION

Building Plot with Mountain Views — Fronsac, Pyrenees

Set in a peaceful and natural environment, this 737 m² building plot offers a wonderful opportunity to create a home tailored entirely to your vision.

With an approved operational planning certificate - CU (B), you can move forward with your project with clarity and confidence.

The land is south-facing, ensuring sunlight throughout the day, and enjoys open, uninterrupted views of the surrounding mountains — including snow-capped peaks in winter.

Already enclosed on three sides, it provides a practical starting point for landscaping.

One of the key advantages of this plot is all utilities are readily accessible from the lane, including mains drainage, water, electricity and fibre optic internet, making the process of building more straightforward and cost-effective. This is a significant advantage when building in rural areas.

Whether you are looking to create a permanent residence, a lock-up-and-leave holiday home, or a future rental investment, this plot offers flexibility and strong potential in a highly desirable location.

The Region

Located in the charming village of Fronsac (31440), the setting is peaceful yet far from isolated. Everyday amenities including supermarkets, cafés and local services are within easy reach, while the surrounding area offers a rich blend of French and Spanish culture.

Just 30 minutes from the Spanish border, the vibrant Val d'Aran is close by, offering a wide choice of restaurants, bars, shops and year-round activities.
