NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Located off a quiet country lane.

Ground Floor.

You enter into a hallway with a 23m² cave/boiler room to your left and a good sized double aspect kitchen to your right. Off the hallway is downstairs WC and a separate shower. Off the kitchen is a large and light living 37m² room with fireplace and access to the front of the property.

First Floor.

Stairs lead from the living room to a large double aspect bedroom. Off this bedroom is a 4.5m² Jack and Jill style bathroom with bath and separate corner shower as well as a separate WC. This bathroom area leads to a second large double bedroom of 23m² with a built-in cupboard. From this bedroom you then go through to two further double bedrooms. The house is built on a gentle slope and the other two double bedrooms of 11.5m² and 12.2m² are both accessed down a couple of steps. A second solid wood staircase then leads down to the entrance hallway.

Second Floor.

Above the two larger bedrooms are insulated attic spaces that have the potential for conversion, should you require additional living accommodation.

Outside.

There is a generous courtyard area directly in front of the main house with an old bread oven. There is a lawned area to the side of the main house and the rest of the garden behind and around the gite being laid mostly to lawn with some mature trees and planting. There...
