NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Leggett are proud to present to market this remarkable former paper mill, now a truly captivating riverside manoir set within a peaceful wooded valley just outside the sought-after town of Vire-Normandie.

This is a property that offers far more than a home. It offers a way of life. Imagine stepping out of your back door to the gentle sound of flowing water, casting a line into your own stretch of river, or enjoying long summer evenings on the terrace surrounded by mature trees and the tranquillity of the Normandy countryside.

Approached via a long private gravel driveway, the manoir reveals itself gradually, creating an immediate sense of privacy and arrival. Inside, the property is beautifully presented, with high ceilings, elegant proportions and an abundance of natural light throughout. Period features blend seamlessly with modern comforts, creating a home that is both characterful and practical.

The grounds extend to over 3 acres. Around 4,500m² is laid out as formal gardens, while the remainder has been left more natural, enhancing the sense of space and connection to the surrounding landscape. The mill race runs beneath the property, a rare and fascinating feature that also offers potential for hydro-electric generation. The river forms a picturesque boundary, adding to the unique charm of this exceptional home.

In addition, there is a self-contained annexe or gîte, ideal for welcoming family and friends or for those looking to generate an income from holiday lets.
