IN BRIEF

Where the water cools you off in the summer : just steps away from local amenities, this unique property offers an ideal living environment for a family seeking space, nature, and tranquility.

Nestled in lush green surroundings, this charming 1930s house, built on the former site of a mill, offers approximately 200 m² of living space and captivates with its authentic character and generous proportions. The outdoor areas are a real asset: set on an exceptional, fully enclosed plot of 10,195 m², the property is crossed by a small stream feeding a pond, creating a peaceful and bucolic atmosphere. You will find a meadow perfect for animals or a vegetable garden, as well as lovely wooded areas featuring maple, cherry and ash trees. Fruit trees (cherry and apple) complete this enchanting setting.

DESCRIPTION

As soon as you enter, you'll find a welcoming entryway (10 sq. m.) that leads, on one side, to a cozy living room (17 sq. m.), and on the other, to a guest bedroom (16 sq. m.) with its own bathroom—perfect for hosting family and friends in complete privacy. Downstairs, accessible via a few steps from the entryway or the living room, lies a beautiful, inviting living space consisting of a dining room (15 sq. m) and a kitchen (17 sq. m) that opens directly onto a pleasant courtyard recently paved with exposed aggregate concrete, perfect for outdoor dining. This leads to an outbuilding, an additional living space on stilts of approximately 25 m², offering an unobstructed view of the meadow, the pond, and the surrounding nature.

Upstairs, the sleeping area features four large bedrooms (between 15 and 23 m²), a 6.3 m² bathroom, and a spacious terrace (14 m²), ideal for enjoying sunny days in complete tranquility.

As for the outbuildings, a 40 m² double garage and a 40 m² workshop offer numerous possibilities.
