IN BRIEF

Discreetly positioned at the end of a small track and secured behind gates, this high-quality villa (built in 2008) offers privacy, tranquillity and timeless charm, with all the comforts of modern living.

Wake up to far-reaching countryside views, enjoy long summer evenings by the pool, and embrace a peaceful lifestyle surrounded by nature.

With approx. 220 m² of mainly single-level living, the home features a striking cathedral-ceiling living/dining room with fireplace, a fully equipped kitchen opening onto a sun-drenched terrace, and a luxurious master suite with dressing and private bathroom. A bright garden room with wood burner ensures year-round comfort.

An independent gîte offers guest accommodation or rental potential. Set within 1.8 hectares, the property includes a 9x5m pool, garage, carport, fruit trees, vegetable garden and former truffle orchard. A private retreat just minutes from Montcuq and Lauzerte, Southwest France.
