IN BRIEF

Situated in a sought-after and practical location, this four-bedroom property presents an excellent renovation opportunity for buyers looking to create a family home or investment.

The accommodation includes a ground-floor bedroom and bathroom, offering flexible living arrangements and added convenience. The remaining bedrooms are located upstairs with another bathroom, providing ample space for family living.

While the property requires renovation throughout, it offers generous proportions and significant potential to add value.

Ideally positioned within close proximity to local amenities, including a school, supermarket, and boulangerie, the property is perfectly suited for everyday living. The Atlantic coast is just a 10-minute drive away, providing easy access to beaches and coastal activities and la rochelle airport being only 60kms away.
