DESCRIPTION

The gated driveway leads you up to the property with the large traditional barn on the left and the house with fantastic views over open countryside to your right.

There is parking for multiple vehicles and a small path that leads you to the front door which leads you directly into the large kitchen/diner (4.8m x 5.5m), the kitchen is fully equipped, tiled floor and a large woodburner for those winter nights. There is a long corridor from the kitchen that leads you past the 2 bedrooms (4.3m x 2.8m / 4m x 2.8m) with a shared adjoining toilet and down to a further shower room and laundry room. The staircase leads up to an open attic with possibilities for further renovation and room that could be a further bedroom or office.

There has also been a large extension built to the side of the property, this comprises of a large room (6m x 3.1m) and a further 2 rooms that house the boiler that can be fueled by both wood or oil, the fuel tank and electric water boiler.

The large traditional barn is currently used as a workshop at one end and the rest has been used for storage.

There are multiple parcels of adjoining land with over a hectare of land that has been split into orchards, vegetable patches, chicken areas and a fenced paddock for grazing. This is the perfect example of a property that could be self sufficient, there is also...
