DESCRIPTION

Just a short drive from the vibrant center of Cahors, this appealing late 20th-century stone residence offers space, tranquillity and great potential, set within nearly 4,000 m² of enclosed grounds.

The interior welcomes you with a generous, light-filled living area, complemented by practical features such as a utility room, shower room and separate WC. The ground floor also hosts two comfortable bedrooms, including a private suite.

Upstairs, a mezzanine opens onto an impressive multi-purpose space of over 50 m²—ideal as a games room, studio or home office. Two additional bedrooms, along with a bathroom and separate WC, complete this level.

Outdoors, the property truly shines. The landscaped garden provides privacy and open views, while the 11 x 5 metre swimming pool and pool house invite long summer days with family and friends.

Secure and fully fenced, with an electric gate and modern upgrades such as double-glazed windows, this home is ready to enjoy, while still offering scope for further enhancement.

A wonderful opportunity to create a charming family home or holiday retreat in the heart of the Lot.
