NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Set within a beautifully wooded and fully enclosed 3,900 m² park, private and sheltered from view, this distinctive property offers approximately 276 m² of living space. Natural stone, generous proportions, abundant light and a charming pigeon tower dating from the late 19th century give the house its unique character, while five bedrooms and spacious living areas provide plenty of room for family and friends.

Here, nature and leisure are quite literally on the doorstep. The River Lot is just a three-minute walk from the property, while the CAP NATURE leisure park in Pradines can be reached in around five minutes on foot. Water skiing on the Lot, tree-top adventure courses, paintball and an 18-hole mini-golf course offer an exceptional playground for all ages, just moments from home.

As soon as the warmer days arrive, life naturally moves outdoors. Imagine breakfast on the terrace, long summer lunches under the trees, children playing in the grounds and lazy afternoons around the impressive 11 x 5 metre swimming pool and its pool house. For water-sports enthusiasts, being able to walk to the water-skiing facilities on the Lot is a particularly rare privilege.

Inside, the house is equally well suited to family life or as a second home. The generous ground-floor spaces allow for comfortable single-level living, while upstairs, the mezzanine and an impressive room of more than 50 m² offer endless possibilities: a games room, home cinema, library, artist's studio, home office or simply a wonderful space in which to...
