DESCRIPTION

Tucked away along a peaceful country lane, this charming rural Normandy property offers a superb blend of character, space, and versatility. Accessed via a neatly gravelled driveway, it opens onto a spacious courtyard with ample parking, creating an immediate sense of privacy and tranquillity. The main house is full of original features and warmth, complemented by a restored barn retaining its traditional bread oven. A substantial outbuilding provides excellent workshop space, storage, and potential for further development (subject to permissions), making it ideal for a range of uses.

The grounds are a true highlight, with attractive terraced gardens perfect for outdoor dining, landscaped areas, and a flat fruit orchard accessed via a charming bridge. This setting is ideal for those seeking a smallholding lifestyle or exploring gîte or holiday rental potential. Its proximity to a popular cycling route further enhances its appeal.

Inside, the property combines comfort with character. A modern kitchen opens into a cosy dining area with a wood-burning stove, while a welcoming living room and practical utility spaces add to the home's functionality. Upstairs offers flexible accommodation, including a principal bedroom with en suite, additional bedrooms, family bathrooms, and space for a home office or reading area. A separate section with its own entrance and kitchen/living space provides excellent potential for guest accommodation, gîte use, or multi-generational living.
