NOTES

DESCRIPTION

The village of Bras-d'Asse is close to the famous Gorges du Verdon and the Valensole Plateau with its mile-long lavender fields. The village has a primary school, kindergarten, hotel, restaurants, grocery shop, post office and most of all - a spectacular nature around.

Perching above the village is the impressive Vieux Bras-d'Asse, the old remnants of an old and abandoned village.

The village is situated in one of the world's first UNESCO Geoparks, the Géoparc Mondial de Haute Provence in the heart of the beautiful Provençal nature.

Haute Provence is famous for its spectacular nature and countryside, with beautiful stone villages, mile long lavender fields, olive trees, wild time, orchids, sage, and so on. This little department in Provence is known for its fresh air, and is loved by nature, sport and animal lovers.

Nearest towns are Oraison, approximately 22 km, Riez 15 km, Valensole 20 km, Digne-les-Bains 25 km and Manosque approximately 40 km away.

Nearest larger towns are either Riez, or Digne-les-Bains is where you will find hospitals, health centers, secondary education and more shopping. Riez is also known for the famous Riez market where you can buy local products. Digne-les-bains also has a very popular market.

Bras-d'Asse is situated approximately 100 km away from Aix-en-Provence TGV train station and 112 km from the Marseille International airport.
