DESCRIPTION

Villars is a small, charming village in the Luberon Regional Natural Park that has retained its Provençal soul and offers an excellent quality of life, both in summer and winter. It is made up of seven hamlets, and this is one of them. The hamlet still features a beautiful lavoir (washhouse), a large plane tree, a chapel up in the hills, a few small streets, and friendly residents who look out for one another.

This hamlet is surrounded by cherry orchards, olive groves, lavender fields, and truffle woods, set against the Monts de Vaucluse and close to the stunning Colorado Provençal with its incredible colours. In both areas, you can walk, cycle, ride horseback, or explore further by car or motorbike. The landscapes change at every turn—so beautiful they often feel like a painting: lavender hues, poppies, cherry blossoms, sunflower fields, ochres, and the deep blue Provençal sky... all right on your doorstep.

Villars offers an excellent wood-fired bakery, a bar, several restaurants, a post office, a primary school, and a town hall. In summer, there is also a small weekly market.

The town of Apt is just a 10-minute drive away, with supermarkets, a cinema, secondary schools, medical services, a hospital and its famous Saturday Provençal market.

This property is about one hour from the TGV station of Avignon and one and a half hours from the airport of Marseille.

This listing includes 360° photos and floor plans of the house.
