DESCRIPTION

A Timeless Historical Estate of Elegance and Comfort

Prestigious historical residence nestled in a verdant 2.2-hectare park of meadow and woodland, harmoniously blending authenticity and prestige. Lovingly renovated with passion by its owners, it offers a rare living environment steeped in charm and history.

The main stone building boasts 243 m² of refined living space, with spacious lounges featuring fireplaces. The property is noted for its brightness thanks to its large mullioned windows adorned with stained glass. A tower with a medieval spiral staircase lends the property a unique sense of timeless authenticity and character.

Three bedrooms, an office, dining room, study, fully equipped kitchen, vaulted cellar and laundry room complete this elegant ensemble, where fine materials and modern comfort meet history.

A separate 49 m² guest house and a dovecote — convertible into an additional bedroom — provide further accommodation, ideal for family, friends, or a luxury hospitality project. Expansion possibilities include converting additional rooms and the dovecote.

Outside, multiple terraces invite relaxation with privileged views of the valley and the river flowing below. An elevated path leads to a dedicated area for outdoor gatherings, ideally suited for installing a swimming pool.
