DESCRIPTION

This spacious character home is located in a quiet hamlet, offering privacy, generous living space, and an adjoining garden of approximately 1,000 m². The property features eight bedrooms and five bathrooms, making it ideal for a large family or a hospitality business project. The house includes a comfortable living room, a separate dining room, and an independent kitchen. A bright conservatory provides additional living space and opens pleasantly onto the outdoors. An additional plot of land is also included with the property.

The house is equipped with a wood-burning stove and two recently installed 500-litre hot water tanks (2024–2025). It is connected to the mains drainage system and benefits from fibre-optic internet.

Outside, a large barn offers excellent potential for storage, workshops, or further development. The property is currently operated successfully as a bed-and-breakfast business, which may be continued subject to agreement with the current owners.

The peaceful hamlet is located just a few minutes from the centre of Magnac-Laval, a vibrant market town known for its friendly atmosphere and excellent range of amenities. These include supermarkets, bakeries, cafés, restaurants, a pharmacy, medical services, a school, and a weekly market. The town also hosts a variety of local events throughout the year and offers easy access to the surrounding countryside, making it an attractive location for both permanent residents and holidaymakers.

Set in a peaceful and charming environment, this property combines space, comfort, and income potential—ideal for a lifestyle change or an investment opportunity.
