DESCRIPTION

A rare opportunity to acquire a unique, fully detached property set within a former quarry, offering a truly distinctive natural setting. The property provides approximately 42 m² of living space and sits on an extensive 7,450 m² plot, surrounded by dramatic rock formations that create a striking and characterful landscape.

Accessed by the road, the house enjoys a peaceful, unspoiled environment with no immediate neighbours, making it ideal as a retreat, holiday home, or off-grid lifestyle property. The land itself is a key feature, combining rugged stone backdrops with open areas and a charming spring-fed pond that adds to the tranquil atmosphere.

The property is equipped with solar panels, supporting an off-grid way of living. While there is no connection to mains electricity, there is a mains water supply. The setting offers a rare blend of independence and natural beauty, with the former quarry providing both shelter and a unique visual appeal.

This is a property for those seeking something out of the ordinary — a private haven immersed in nature, with remarkable geological features and a sense of complete escape.
