IN BRIEF

From a quiet side road in this sought-after village, a drive lined with flowering shrubs leads to the house and garden totalling 2500 m². There is a spacious gravelled parking and turning space bordered with trees and plants in front of the house and its annexe, and there is plenty of room behind the house for a kitchen garden, flower beds, a play area, the 10 by 5m pool and its sun-lounging areas, plus a separate garden for the 52 m² annexe building.

DESCRIPTION

From a large covered terrace in front of the house, the entrance leads into a spacious entry hall of 18.6m². On the right is the living area of 47.5 m², which has a marble fireplace with a wood-burning insert and windows facing west and south over the gardens. A large opening leads from this room into the fully fitted kitchen of 22 m², which has lovely green/blue units and a large professional-style cooker.

On the east side of the house are the three bedrooms, two of 11.5 m² and the parental suite of 17.5 m² which has a gorgeous shower room of 7.15 m² and a large fitted wardrobe. Each bedroom has a glazed double french window, and the parental suite has two. A second smart modern shower room of 3.5m² is accessed from the entrance hall.

LOCAL TAXES

Taxe foncière: 1634 EUR

The house was constructed in the year 2000, and has been renovated recently: it is fully double-glazed, and has electric heaters as well as the woodburning stove, and heated towel rails in the shower rooms. It has terraces round three sides, roofed on the south and north, and open on the east side.

The former garage to the house has been extended to create an annexe/gîte with a 19.4 m² living room, 10.8 m² bedroom, kitchen of 14.66 m², 4 m² shower room, and a 5 m² mezzanine as a second sleeping space. It has its own parking area and garden, and access to the swimming pool, and the covered...
