IN BRIEF

Set in a peaceful location just 250m from the Vercland gondola, this exceptional luxury chalet offers outstanding access to the Grand Massif ski area.

This impressive property enjoys sweeping panoramic views across the valley and surrounding peaks, including the iconic peaks of the Criou and Mt. Buet. It combines a quiet alpine setting with excellent proximity to ski lifts, restaurants, and the ski bus linking Samoëns and Morillon.

Arranged over three levels, this modern chalet has been thoughtfully designed to balance comfort, space, and practicality. It features five spacious ensuite double bedrooms, multiple living areas including a second lounge/TV room, and a superb open-plan kitchen, dining, and living space centred around a wood-burning stove. A ski room, laundry room, and extensive balconies and terraces further

DESCRIPTION

Built and finished to a high standard by renowned local artisans in 2021, this beautiful chalet offers over 230 m² of living space in a sought after location and is just 3 km from the pretty village of Samoëns.

Meticulously maintained since construction, the property still retains the feel of a new-build and still has 5 years of décennale insurance remaining. It benefits from underfloor electric heating throughout and a thoughtfully designed layout that works equally well as a luxury family home or a high-end rental investment.

The outdoor spaces include multiple balconies and terraces, parking for three or more vehicles, and a generous plot enhanced by uninterrupted mountain views in a peaceful alpine setting.
