DESCRIPTION

This attractive late 19th century property combines generous proportions, period charm and versatile outbuildings in a peaceful hamlet setting close to Clamecy. Offering four generously sized bedrooms, two reception areas, enclosed gardens and substantial detached barns, the property provides flexible accommodation suitable for family living, holiday use or a hospitality project.

The house retains many original architectural details while benefiting from modern practical comforts including village gas central heating, fibre internet and double glazing throughout.

Ground Floor Accommodation

The main entrance door opens directly into the lounge measuring approximately 19.6m² (5.30m x 3.70m). This is a bright and welcoming reception room with high ceilings, large windows and an original decorative fireplace forming the focal point of the room. The proportions of the space allow for both comfortable seating and entertaining.

An opening leads directly through into the dining room measuring approximately 14.2m² (3.90m x 3.65m). Positioned between the lounge and kitchen areas, this room creates an excellent flow through the property and works particularly well for family dining or entertaining guests. This room also has direct access to the outside courtyard area creating a secondary main entrance.

From the dining room, access is given to the central hallway containing the original staircase and decorative banister leading to the first floor. The staircase remains one of the standout character features of the property.

The kitchen measures approximately 19m² (4.75m x 4.00m) and is arranged in a practical square layout with room for a large dining table at the centre of the...
