DESCRIPTION

Ideally located building plot on the outskirts of Aix-sur-Vienne – Rare opportunity!

Discover this superb buildable plot with a total surface area of approximately 1,600 m², ideally situated on the outer edge of Aix-sur-Vienne, offering a privileged setting that combines peace, accessibility, and excellent development potential.

Directly accessible from a main road via its private access route, this land offers great flexibility: it can be used as one large plot or divided into two separate parcels, depending on your project.

Connections to essential utilities, including electricity and mains drainage, can potentially be extended from the main road, providing a significant advantage for future construction or investment plans.

Its elevated position within the surrounding area gives the property an open, spacious feel along with attractive views, making this plot particularly appealing for a new-build project.

The location also benefits from quick and convenient access to nearby amenities, including the centre of Aix-sur-Vienne, local shops and services, Limoges within just 20 minutes, and the airport.

Whether you are searching for the perfect location for your future home, a construction project, or an attractive investment opportunity, this land offers outstanding potential.
