NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Magnificent character property in the historic and sought-after centre of Mâcon, combining the charm of the old with high-end contemporary comfort. Completely renovated with taste, this atypical residence, built in 1650 as a convent has retained its soul and its history while offering generous volumes and luminous rooms. Built on three levels, this unique property offers luxurious modern living in a remarkable building. Closed from the street by a high wall this property offers seclusion and security in the centre of town. Through the walled garden with a lawn to one side you reach the entrance. Once inside you can appreciate the amount of light and spaciousness of the property. To the right there is the bright and huge open plan dining room with a bar from here you step down to the comfortable sitting room opened up by glass arched windows and high ceilings, from here is an open plan staircase to the first floor. To the left of the entrance, you will find a large well planned and fully equipped kitchen a pantry and a practical laundry room. The kitchen leads to a private decked terrace ideal for outdoor living and entertaining. The downstairs of the property is completed with equipment that guarantees absolute comfort and relaxation a private SPA area for your moments of tranquillity and contemplation.

On the first floor are three bedrooms, including a huge master suite with its private shower room and sauna. Two...
