DESCRIPTION

A warm holiday home with a sunny paved terrace overlooking a 750 m² plot and open rural views to the south. Located in the heart of Burgundy between Autun and Beaune, just a short drive from the medieval town of Nolay with its covered market, shops, and services.

The hamlet of La Forêt is an excellent base for exploring Burgundy, situated between famous vineyards and the Morvan Regional Natural Park, with numerous hiking trails and cycling routes nearby.

The house has been made comfortable for a small family while retaining much of its original character. It is immediately habitable as a holiday home, though it would benefit from some updates for use as a permanent residence, such as improved insulation and central heating.

From the terrace you enter the fitted kitchen. On one side is the bathroom with shower, bath, WC, and washing machine. On the other side is a cosy living room with exposed beams, terracotta tiles, and a wood-burning stove. A staircase from the living room leads to a mezzanine area and two bedrooms.

The property is mostly double glazed and has individual electric heaters to supplement the wood stove. Furniture and equipment are available by negotiation.

The garden features a paved terrace in front of the kitchen, ideal for outdoor dining with views over the rolling countryside. Stone steps lead down from the terrace to a vaulted cellar, useful for storing bikes and garden furniture.

A charming property in a peaceful hamlet with beautiful views.
