NOTES

DESCRIPTION

In the heart of the Ardèche, in Saint-Laurent-du-Pape, just 30 minutes from Valence and the TGV station, and 20 minutes from the A7 motorway, lies an extraordinary property: a former silk farm dating back to 1820, steeped in history and offering a majestic setting with exceptional potential.

From the moment you enter, the spectacular 200 sqm orangery reveals itself as the beating heart of the estate. With soaring 11-meter-high ceilings, this majestic, light-filled space is ideally suited for weddings, private receptions, exclusive seminars, or artistic events.

The property captivates with the generosity of its volumes, the richness of its architecture, and the authenticity of its historic features. Spanning more than 1,000 sqm of built space, the residence was designed for hosting: it includes twelve bedrooms, a reception lounge, and a semi-professional kitchen, making it equally suitable as an exceptional private residence or a high-end hospitality venture.

Currently operated as a guesthouse, the property is immediately functional and offers remarkable potential to develop into a charming destination, an event venue, or a prestigious retreat.

The estate extends over 28 hectares, offering complete privacy. A true jewel of the grounds, a forest of century-old cedar trees watches over the property, bringing an atmosphere of serenity and a rare landscaped identity. The proximity of the Dolce Via further enhances the appeal of the estate, providing privileged access to one of the region's most beautiful soft mobility routes.

A parking area allows guests and visitors to be welcomed comfortably for events or stays.
