DESCRIPTION

Built in the 1960s, this property offers charm and character reminiscent of the Art Deco style of earlier decades. While the house would benefit from updating and energy-efficiency improvements, it offers excellent potential for further enhancement.

The open-plan living and dining room is filled with natural light thanks to large French windows overlooking the rear garden. The house enjoys a bright and airy feel throughout.

The ground floor includes two bedrooms and a bathroom, making the property suitable for single-storey living. Upstairs, there is a further bedroom and a room currently fitted with a wash basin and toilet. The spacious attic area, with good head height and easy access, offers excellent potential for conversion into additional living space.

Outside, the property is surrounded by gardens to the front, rear and side, offering privacy and no overlooking neighbours. The garage can be accessed both from inside the house and directly from the front and rear gardens.

A full basement completes the property, including the boiler room, workshop space and two additional storage rooms.

Please note: The property is single glazed with some secondary glazing. The oil fired boiler is a low consumption boiler. Mains drainage.
