NOTES

DESCRIPTION

This is a beautifully renovated stone house with a pretty garden and outbuildings. With around 125m² living space the house has lounge around 34m² with stone fireplace, fitted kitchen around 27m² with dining area and fireplace. Upstairs are 3 good sized bedrooms (20, 10, 10m²) one with fireplace, a large bathroom around 9m² with bath, wc and separate shower cubicle, plus a further shower room with wc. The landing has plenty of storage space.

Double glazing throughout, central heating (electric) recent roof, insulation, electrics and plumbing, septic tank. 2 recently installed reversible heat pumps.

Outside there are several large outbuildings totalling over 100m² including an historic "tour de Chappe" dating from the 19th century, used as an early means of communication. The land totals over 2000m², and includes a form of maze.

Quiet spot, close to small village, and less than 5 minutes from the ancient village of Bourg, with all amenities, market, citadel, port, restaurants etc.

Ideal family of holiday home in beautiful condition and maintaining many original features - an absolute gem!
