DESCRIPTION

Tucked away in a peaceful hamlet just 2 km from the lively village of Rouillé, this attractive stone property offers the perfect blend of character, comfort and flexibility. Comprising two independent houses set within mature gardens and surrounded by open countryside, it is ideal for extended family living, welcoming guests, or creating additional rental income if desired.

The main house has been carefully renovated while retaining its original charm, with exposed stone walls, generous living spaces, gas central heating and double glazing throughout. A small terrace leads to double doors opening into a spacious open-plan living area combining a fitted kitchen, dining space and sitting room. The feature stone wall and open staircase create a warm and welcoming atmosphere, perfect for family life or entertaining.

NOTES

On the ground floor are two comfortable bedrooms and a shower room, offering practical single-level living if required. Upstairs, the large landing provides a useful additional sitting area, reading corner or study space. The principal bedroom is currently arranged as a generous family suite with space for a king-size bed, single bed and cot, and benefits from its own shower room. A further bedroom also enjoys an en-suite shower room, making the layout particularly suited to hosting family and friends.

The second house, currently used as the owners' accommodation, enjoys its own private terrace and separate outdoor space with lovely views across the surrounding fields. Inside, the accommodation includes a kitchen/dining room, utility room with shower, separate WC and a bright, spacious...
