IN BRIEF

This property has been a much loved family home, renovated in part in 2007, and the first floor in 2014, it offers two spacious living/reception rooms on the ground floor with plenty of original features (tommette tiled floor, stone chimney breast) along with modern comforts like the pellet burner.

Outside, it offers a substantial plot of land (just over 8000m²) and some outbuildings.

It is well located for everyday conveniences such as schools and small local shops, and also as a holiday destination being close to the castles of Ussé and Chinon along the Loire à Vélo cycling path.

The property is situated between Rigny Ussé and Huismes, 11km from Chinon and 16km from Langeais, both of which have railway links to Tours as well as much more substantial shops and services.
