NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Located in Villelongue-de-la-Salanque, a sought-after village offering a great lifestyle between the countryside and the sea, this contemporary home is set in a quiet and modern residential area. The village offers shops, schools and everyday amenities close by, while the beaches are only 5 km away. A direct cycle path also provides easy access to both the coast and Perpignan.

This three-sided detached property offers 125 m² of living space on a fully enclosed 540 m² plot. The house combines contemporary design, character, generous volumes and excellent energy efficiency.

The main feature of the home is the impressive 50 m² living area with cathedral ceiling, double-height volume and full-height glass panelling that floods the space with natural light, especially from the upstairs gallery landing. The overall feel is modern yet warm, with a bright lounge area centred around the wood-burning stove.
